

Michelle Obama

Michelle Obama was born on January 17, 1964. She is 56 years old. She studied at Princeton University and Harvard University.

She is married to Barack Obama, the 44th President of the United States.

They got married in 1992.

They were working at a law firm when they met.

They have 2 daughters.

Michelle was the First Lady of the United States from 2009 to 2017.

The Obamas had been living in Chicago before they moved to the White House.

While she was First Lady, she focused on better nutrition and exercise for children, help for veterans and education for girls.

After she was First Lady, she wrote a memoir called Becoming.

During her career, she has worked as a lawyer, university administrator, writer, executive director and more.

Michelle has given many powerful speeches throughout her life.

Recently, she has been producing documentaries for Netflix (American Factory and Crip Camp), and she has been reading to children online.

The Obamas will participate in a YouTube special on June 6, 2020, called Dear Class of 2020, an online graduation celebration for graduates from any kind of school. Several celebrities and leaders are going to join them.

Michelle Obama continues to inspire people around the world.