

Present Continuous and Simple Present

Peter Allen lives in Boston, Massachusetts. He is a businessman, and he works in an office. He usually has a busy schedule. Everything he is doing this week is different from what he usually does.

You need to tell me what Peter usually does everyday, and what he is doing differently this week.

For example: Peter usually works in an office. This week he is working from home.

1. Peter usually wears _____. This week, he is wearing _____.
2. He usually goes to the gym for exercise. This week, he _____.
3. He usually drives to work every morning. This week, he _____.
4. He usually gets take out for lunch. This week, he _____.
5. _____.

Your Life

Write some sentences about your own life. What do you and your family members usually do and what are you doing differently this week.

For example:

My daughter usually goes to preschool. This week, she is learning at home.

I usually go to the gym twice a week. This week, I am running outside.
